Key Discussion Points:

- Sprint 2 started
- CV:
    - Waiting for game information from Andy
    - Considering ID consistency between stones as well as timing between pictures
    - Hogged doesn't make it past the hog line
        - Between two turns if the color does
    - George is getting more familiar with YOLO color detection - likely labeling based on color ‘color1’ vs ‘color2’ to account for future clubs being included
    - Brooke waiting from Andy
    - Christian is doing ID after color attachment, based on closest stone
- UI:
    - Shifted to low-fidelity for user testing next week
    - Will have log in and calendar by Thursday

Major decisions:

- For next TA meeting have a small demo to share for both teams

Upcoming actions:

- Meeting on Thursday with DJ
- Updating github with corrected meeting minutes
- Ask Andy about how we would integrate with curling.gg to understand what the output needs to look like for the CV pipeline
